Choice Pickings Poorly Priced.

—Today's list is made up of news important to every woman in Washington. There's something in it nine houses out of ten have need for. Regular prices have been fatally cut in this onslaught. It's just a question of laying out little money and laying in a big bargain. The price values are without precedent.

—We're not offering you undesirable goods, that we want to get rid of—just the contrary. We've made specials of the choicest choosings.

Auction Sale of the Everett Art Stock.

Beginning Monday, February 7,

AT 10 O'CLOCK A.M.

the entire stock of the justly famous Everett Art Store, at 1225 F St., will be offered at public auction. It has been decided to make a change in the business, and with that end in view the present stock of High-grade Jewelry, Watches and Diamonds, Silver Novelties, Dresden Porcelains, Royal Dux Ware, Bronze and Marble Statuary, Lamps, Clocks, Fine Paintings, etc., etc. —must be disposed of at once.

To every particular person the name of Everett is inseparably linked with the very highest grade goods—and the opportunity to secure articles from such a stock at "auction prices" is one that no prudent person can resist.

It is only once in a great while that such a chance is presented—and when it comes the great army of shoppers are eager to take advantage of the opportunity. The sale will be short and decisive—and every woman should make it a point to be present. Articles of the highest standard of quality—suitable for gift-giving, wedding presents, for the home—or for the family—are to be had at whatever you choose to bid for them. Can you afford to miss it?

F. WARREN JOHNSON, Auctioneer.

A Better Store

Today than yesterday—better tomorrow than today—that is what we are persistently and unceasingly striving for. This is a great, modern business enterprise that looks after the smallest detail of everybody's personal and home comforts. A plain statement of facts, with plain prices, plainly marked, and money back if you wish—these are our methods of doing business.

Much of the Spring Merchandise is Ready.

The counters and shelves are laden with rich beauty and newness. Each day unfolds some new form of prettiness. The rich Silks, the peerless French Organies and Mousselines, the Dimities, the Gingham and the like—all are ready—bright and attractive in their many novel and unique forms of prettiness. Many are enjoying a "first view" now.

Elegant Costumes for Spring.

We shall exhibit Monday some beautiful advance styles in Ladies' Tailor-made Costumes in fashionable spring materials, suitable for Promenade, Driving, Church, Calling and Shopping Purposes.

They are the latest conceptions of celebrated artists, strictly high class in character, and comprise the new cloths, shapes and styles—entire costumes lined throughout with rich silks.

These garments are for present use and are very smart.

Prices Range from $18.50 to $50.00.

Third floor.

The New Cotton Stuffs for Spring.

Monday's showing will be a revelation as to the onward strides in weaving and coloring of these dainty stuffs. The department is a bower of beauty with its wealth of exquisite new cotton fabrics, fresh from the looms of the home manufacturers and the hands of the artistic designers and printers across the water.

The French Organies and Mousselines seem to have caught myriads of flowers in their web-like formation; the newest Irish Dimities are prettier than ever; the Scotch Gingham, the Printed Madras and the whole family of high-class cottons show more novelty and beauty than for several seasons past. Many of the modest ones follow closely in the footsteps of the more aristocratic sorts—every one of them bright with the latest effects of loom worker and color printer. It is pleasant to choose from these newest, freshest things. Many are doing so. The following is a partial list of the most recent arrivals:

The Foreign—

French Organdi.

In plain evening tints and exquisite artistic printings, floral designs of white and tinted grounds. 32 inches wide.

37½c. a Yard.

Organdi Raye.

Handsome floral printings on white ground, with wide satin stripes—charming effects. 30 inches wide.

40c. a Yard.

Printed Dimity.

The genuine Irish goods, manufactured in Belfast, for our special order. One hundred exquisite designs in figures and stripes and no two alike. 30 inches wide.

25c. a Yard.

Organdi Carreaux.

Plain effects, exquisite designs and printings—very sheer and dainty. 30 inches wide.

50c. a Yard.

First floor.

The Domestic—

Toile Du Nord Gingham.

In a host of small checks, blacks and rich Tartan Plaid; beautiful effects, soft, and finer than ever. 27 inches wide.

10c. a Yard.

Bates' Seersucker Gingham.

In the hundred and one staple styles and a great many new designs; checks, plaids and stripes. 27 inches wide.

12½c. a Yard.

French Percales.

Over a hundred distinct styles and printings, and all pretty—stripes, checks, plaids, figures; exquisite colorings. 36 inches wide.

12½c. a Yard.

First floor.

The New Dress Trimmings are Ready.

Every new and attractive fancy is here as well as the more staple sorts. Many exclusive novelties are among them, and are the richest things imaginable—and they are most reasonably priced.

Braids are much in evidence. Braids in their simple prettiness and braids twisted into designs more or less elaborate. And Spangled Passanteries and Spangled Garnitures, and Blouses, and Silk Frogs, and Gimps, and Yokes and Embroidered designs for evening wear; odd effects for tailor-made suits, and Beaded and Applique Trimmings in various novelly pretty effects. Many of the richest things are exclusive and can be seen here only.

First floor, adjoining Notion Department.

The Season of '98 Embroideries

Are here, and just now you can see a very rare and artistic exhibition of all that is worth seeing in Hamburgs. They are in unusually choice designs and qualities, comprising the popular English and Scotch Eyelet effects and the Rocaille and Lace effects. Novelties in Jaconets, Swiss, Nainsook and Cambric, including several designs which cannot be duplicated later in the season. Special attention is called to the ### Imported Sheer and Beautiful French Chambrays.

They come in two widths of edge with all-over embroidery to match, and are embroidered in guilaine designs and edged with Valenciennes lace. Plain cloth to match, 45 inches wide, in grey, rose, watermelon, etc. There is a delicateness about these that will at once win your favor.

Some charming designs in Jaconet, Swiss, Nainsook and Cambric Edge, in dainty, lacey effects, are shown in sets of various widths, with insertion and all-overs to match.

Beautiful "baby" patterns in small dots and other neat designs, intended especially for infants' wear.

All of our Embroideries, including the narrow widths and lower-priced goods, show uncommonly fine work, and are exquisitely designed and executed. There is a choice among them, of course, the best patterns always appearing first in the season.

First floor.

In connection with our regular suburban deliveries, we make three deliveries weekly at the following places: Hyattsville, Bladensburg, Avalon, Langdon, Winthrop Heights and Ivy City. Wagons will leave the store at 8 o'clock a.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
